Custom Big Game Hunting Trips

Gros Ventre Wilderness Area, Wyoming

The rugged 317,874-acre Gros Ventre Wilderness Area is home to elk, moose, black bear, grizzly bear, mule deer and bighorn sheep. It receives relatively light human use due to the draw of nearby Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks and the Bridger Wilderness Area. The Gros Ventre Wilderness has over 20 mountain peaks that rise above 10,000 feet and Doubletop Peak, the highest point in the wilderness, towers 11,750 feet.

Our camp consists of a large cook tent with a propane cook stove and 10' x 12' canvas wall tents with propane lanterns. All hunter tents are outfitted with comfortable cots and wood stoves. Our backcountry cooking is the best you'll get anywhere. We pride ourselves in a small, but professional outfit that is interested in serious hunting for the serious hunter.

Fees include all meals, packing, care of meat to the processor, care of cape to the taxidermist, transportation to and from Jackson Hole and the trailhead and sales tax. References available upon request.
